St. Joseph's Children's Hospital of Tampa is an innovative family-centered hospital noted for its high-tech medical care in a child-friendly environment. This premier 174-bed all private room hospital is the third busiest children’s hospital in the state of Florida. Dedicated exclusively to children, the new facility opened on the St. Joseph's Hospital campus in 1998. Bright, warm primary colors welcome children from the minute they walk through the hospital’s front door into the spacious, cheerful lobby.

Families always come first at St. Joseph's Children's Hospital. Parents are encouraged to remain overnight with their child when possible. The inpatient units feature rooms arranged in small clusters. A family lounge and resource center offers videos, literature and computer links for the latest information on children's health. The strong tradition of faith that was originally established at St. Joseph’s by the Franciscan Sisters of Allegany is present in the hospital today.

Families can take comfort in knowing that St. Joseph's Children's acute care hospital services have a well-known reputation for excellence. Services include:

- Children’s Hematology/Oncology Center
- Pediatric intensive and cardiac care centers
- Children’s Heart Center
- Neonatal Intensive Care Center
- Children’s Neuroscience Center
- Children’s Specialty Centers (Including 3 satellite centers)
- Steinbrenner Emergency/Trauma Center for Children

A distinguished 240-member medical staff makes possible the hospital's international reputation for excellence. With more than 120 pediatric physician subspecialists representing 33 medical and surgical disciplines, the hospital is a valuable regional resource for children and their families. An excellent team of nurses, rehabilitation therapists and other health care professionals also offer an exceptional level of skill and dedicated service to children and their families.

The Tampa Bay area offers the diversity of a casual, family-friendly lifestyle in a cosmopolitan city. You and your family will enjoy our professional and college sports, world renowned golf courses, cultural events, recreational activities, family attractions, and pristine beaches.
