

Joshua Hamm, M.S., L.P.C. Child & Adolescent Counselor

Joshua Hamm joined Connections in 2007. He received his bachelor's degree in psychology and master's degree in counseling psychology from the University of Southern Mississippi. He completed an internship at Pine Belt Mental Health Care in child and family therapy. Mr. Hamm is a Licensed Professional Counselor specializing in parent training and child behavior management. He also works with younger children focusing on social skills training, anger management, and treatment for anxiety and depressive disorders. He attends Crestview Baptist Church and is an avid University of Southern Mississippi fan. He also enjoys reading and golfing.

Services

include counseling and therapy for:

Social Skills

- Socially acceptable behavior
- Asking for permission
- Making and keeping friends
- Sharing toys and materials

Appropriate Classroom Behavior

- Developing work habits
- Learning study skills
- Listening
- Following directions
- Focusing on task

Anger Management

- Learning how to control behavior
- Developing internal dialogue
- Accepting consequences

Conflict Resolution

- Seeking assistance to resolve conflict
- Coping with sibling rivalry
- Expressing feelings with words rather than physical contact

Coping Skills

- Enduring divorce
- Coping with grief and loss
- Dealing with tragedy

Parent Education/Counseling

- Communicating effectively with your child
- Understanding your child's ADHD
- Disciplining your child appropriately
- Dealing with tantrums
- Developing bedtime routines
- Helping children sleep in their own bed