

Midwives for Haiti is a nonprofit organization. Will you help us sustain our progress?

"If we want the babies of the world to be breast-fed, immunized, educated, nurtured, and loved, then we must first prevent their mothers from dying in childbirth."

Heloisa Lessa, Midwife from Brazil

Yes, I'd like to contribute:

- _____ $50 will buy enough medication to stop postpartum hemorrhage 10 times
- _____ $100 will pay for scissors, clamps and needle holder for the delivery kits.
- _____ $250 will pay a month's rent for our prenatal clinic in Hinche.
- _____ $500 will pay for one week of onsite supervision, coordination and intervention (when needed) by a certified nurse midwife who speaks Creole.
- _____ $1,500 will educate a skilled midwife for a rural village.
- _____ $2,500 will supply a village midwife with prenatal vitamins and antibiotics for one year.
- _____ $5,000 will pay the yearly salary of a skilled midwife.
- _____ $30,000 will pay 2 midwife instructors for a year.

Please pay by check made payable to Midwives for Haiti.
