

Photo courtesy of Danforth Gallery

Above: A bracelet crafted by Shelley Roberts may be seen Friday at the Danforth Gallery during "Bling!" Below: Periapts created by Lori Ryker.

Two local organizations join forces Local 'Bling!' to fight breast cancer

By Enterprise Staff

Livingston HealthCare and Park County Friends Of The Arts at Danforth Gallery are joining forces by sponsoring an event, set to begin Friday, to raise funds and awareness for the fight against breast cancer during the grand opening of "Bling!", a jewelry show and fundraiser.

Sixteen local and regional jewelry designers and one part-time local painter will display their work at the Danforth Gallery during the fundraiser. Each designer will donate one art piece to be sold in support of the Livingston HealthCare Mammogram Fund. The proceeds will go toward paying for mammograms for women who are uninsured or underinsured in Park, Sweet Grass and Meagher counties.

There will be something for everyone, with a wide range of prices and styles, and it's just in time for the holidays, said a Danforth Gallery press release.

Local and area designers participating in "Bling!" are: Karen Arrasmith, Sarah Ann Boyle, Bonnie Goodman, Lois Gronseth, Jaime Grundner, Sarah Homans, Toni Moilanen, Jeanna Morrison-Noel, Katie Murphy, Christina Perry, Emily Peters, Shelley Roberts, Lori Ryker, Gwen Strachen, Anna Visscher, Janet Vitale, and Holly Manneck with her paintings.

Helping support the event are Livingston Ace Hardware, Crown Creations Cabinetmakers, First Interstate Bank and the Park High Fall 2009 Manufacturing Class.

There will be an artist reception Friday from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Danforth Gallery, 106 N. Main St.

"Bling!" will be on display through Nov. 28. For more information, contact Sandy Marlowe at 823-6262 or Traci Isaly at 222-6510; or visit www.pcfadanforth.org or www.livingstonhealthcare.org.

