Health Festival

Above: Sheila Stordalen tests her flexibility as Carol Stern, of Total Fitness, records it at the Total Fitness booth at the Fall Health Festival, Saturday. The event, sponsored by Livingston HealthCare, was held at the Park County Fairgrounds and featured area business booths that promoted good health.

Right: Two-year-old Noah Doeg, of Livingston, plays in the inflatable Super Colon Saturday. The Super Colon, a 20-foot-long and 8-foot-high inflatable replica of a colon, showed what different cancers and tissues look like.
