LHC holding annual meeting Wednesday

By Enterprise Staff

Livingston HealthCare hosts its annual meeting, which includes elections to the board of directors, Wednesday night.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the Yellowstone Room of the Best Western Yellowstone Inn and is open to the public.

The address includes a report on fiscal year 2008 and overview of future plans. John Flink, vice president of government affairs for the Montana Hospital Association, also will discuss what the months ahead are expected to bring for health care across the state and throughout the country and how the local community will be impacted.

Up for re-election to the board of directors are Michelle Becker, Bernice Dennis, Bernie Gerfen and Dana Taylor.

Becker is the broker/owner of Coldwell Banker Maverick Realty and is a lifelong Park county resident. She joined the board in 2001.

Dennis joined in 2000 and is a former part-time office manager at Farmers Creamery. Gerfen, a businesswoman, came on board the same year as Dennis.

Taylor has been a board member since 2003. He is the vice president of commercial lending at the Bank of Bozeman.
