LIVINGSTON HEALTHCARE ANNOUNCES NEW LOCATION

Livingston HealthCare's Patient Financial Services has a new home—at Western Drug Plaza. Patients can make a payment, meet with a staff member to ask questions about a bill, or set up payment arrangements.

“We wanted to create a location that is easy for our patients to find and get into,” said Livingston HealthCare CEO Sam Pleshar. “Even though it’s not on our ‘campus,’ this new office provides better parking and access for patients, with private areas for staff to meet with patients to answer their concerns. It also puts all of our staff into one location so that they can work more efficiently together.”

The Livingston HealthCare Patient Financial Services office is located on the south side of the building, across from Shear Image salon.
