

Privacy Protection Policy for Social Security Numbers

In the course of doing business, Hartford Medical Group may collect certain personal information, including Social Security numbers. The practice protects the confidentiality of the Social Security numbers it obtains in a number of ways, including by limiting access to them and by prohibiting any unlawful disclosure of them.