

"Can you hold the door of your mind open?"

By Lao Tze

Can you hold the door of your mind
open wide to the universe?
With the natural grace of a child,
at the same time, can you become a parent?
Can you befriend all
without prejudice or taboo?
Can you perfect your sight,
discover your faults and master yourself?
Can you balance the forces of both sexes within?
If you can,
give birth to a new life
and carefully nurture its growing.
Show the way without strife,
stay in the lead and in the right,
without your followers knowing
yours is the Great Way.
